Will the Hon'ble the Minister for Finance be pleased to state:

(a) Whether it is a fact that retrenchment has been ordered in the various departments of the Government;

(a) The Retrenchment and Reorganisation Committee has made various proposals and most of them are still under examination with the departments concerned. Retrenchment has already been effected in some cases, and the Government are always seeking to economise on staff where possible.

(b) if so, what is the total number of Government employees affected by the retrenchment order, their class in Government service, and the amount of money saved per year;

(b) Final orders on all the various proposals of the Committee have not yet been passed. The information is therefore not yet available.

(c) Whether the Government employees in the permanent cadre have also been affected;

(c) It is not likely that any employees in the permanent cadre will be affected. In cases where permanent staff are discharged, which may occur in a few cases of peons, three months' notice is given, and preference is given for reemployment in other vacancies.

(d) what is the principle on which the retrenchment is effected in different departments; and

(d) The Public interest and the efficiency of the Public service.

(e) whether this retrenchment is temporary or permanent?

(e) It is not intended to restore posts that are abolished. Preference is always given to discharged personnel when vacancies for new entrants are filled.
